

Mid Level Java Developer

Responsibilities:

Seeking a mid-level Java Developer that is able to independently solve complex, analytical problems with innovative approaches and solutions. The qualified individual will be a customer focused team player that has extensive experience developing applications through the entire SDLC utilizing Java and Enterprise Java. Familiarity with various technologies is essential as is attention to detail and thoroughness.

Job Requirements:

Mid-Level Java Developer Required Skills:

- 3+ years of software development experience
- 3+ years of Java development experience and at least 1 year of JSE 5.0 (1.5)
- 2+ years of Enterprise Java experience
- 1+ years of XML (any combination of XML, XSLT, and XSD)
- Experience working with relational database system (writing SQL)
- Knowledge of Object-Oriented and distributed programming principles as well as design patterns and Best Practices
- Experience with one or more application servers and Servlet containers
- Candidates should be able to work with Business Analysts, QA, and non-technical stakeholders to understand issues and requirements that shape project delivery

Preferences:

- JDeveloper, Tomcat and Toplink
- SOA and Web Services